

MILLION DOLLAR COVERAGE

NO CAP ON BENEFITS

The LDF has spent more than $1,000,000 on a number of cases. The defense of peace officers in an era in which they are targets of harsh discipline, multi-million dollar civil actions, criminal indictments, and federal grand juries can be very expensive. In its entire history the LDF has never cut a members' benefits because it was "too expensive." This is a record that few legal plans can match.

The fact that we will do what it takes to win a case does not mean that we are free with our participant's money. To the contrary, we employ panel attorneys who are committed to providing cost effective representation. We also maintain an extensive brief bank in order to avoid duplication of services.
